

GOD LEADS Us Along

LIFT UP YOUR HEADS; FOR YOUR REDEMPTION DRAWETH NIGH - LUKE 21:28

✠ The Blessed Hope ✠

The Saviour of our souls told us that he guides us, keeps us and will never forsake us. What better words of encouragement in the last hour, of the last minute, of the last seconds, here on earth.

HOME IS WHERE THE LORD IS

Many images might enter our minds when we hear the word home. Maybe we have memories of former days or maybe it's a temporary feeling you get when coming back to the familiar after much travel.

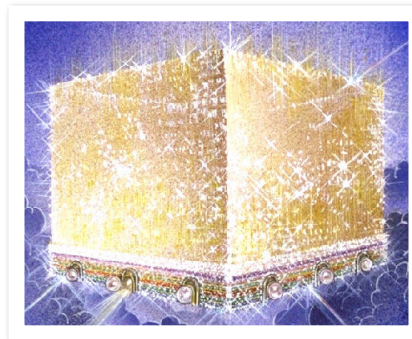

Yet, what I must point out is that home to a born again child of God means so much more. It is our final destination where God dwells. It is our eternal abode where sin cannot infiltrate. All the relaxation in the world could not compare to the freedom of spirit that we will have in the presence of the King. Let me encourage you this day with thoughts of home. We must make it clear to ourselves that when it is time to go home, there will be no more valleys to tread, no more distresses and hurt, no more evil and wickedness. We will eternally dwell where the light always shines, where the rain never falls and yet the river of living water flows freely. Let your light so shine before men because soon, God will be the only light we need.

Ram's Horn

In Hebrew we see that this is called the schofar. In relation to the time when Jesus calls us home, we will hear this sound... the trump of God. - 1 Thessalonians 4:16,17

Click to Hear Sound

The Words of The Week

Bittern: A fowl of the grallic order, the Ardea stellaris, a native of Europe. This fowl has long legs and neck, and stalks among reeds and sedge, feeding upon fish.

Besom: vt. To sweep, as with a besom. sweeping.

n. s as z. A broom; a brush of twigs for

First Mention

In keeping with the scriptural method of bible study, we must let the scripture define Himself. There is no room for private interpretation. - 2 Peter 1:20

In Isaiah 14:23 we see the first mention of these words:

I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

Remembering our Brethren

William Tyndale (1494-1536) was known as the Father of the english bible. It is reported that 80% of Tyndale's translation work is found in the KJAB (King James Authorized Bible). He was a bible smuggler and a scholar (he spoke 8 languages natively) and vehemently opposed the catholic church because of it's anti-christ beliefs. Eventually he was betrayed by his friend and imprisoned in Vilvoorde near Brussels. One year later he was burnt at the stake for opposing the "Holy" church and King Henry the 8th. His last words while burning were, "Lord! Ope the King of England's eyes!" and 6 months later The Lord did... The Great Bible was born!

